New Cases Increase More Than One Hundred Daily.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 4.-The steamer Empress of India brought news that the smallpox epidemic at Kobe is increasing alramingly, hospitals are overcrowded and stretcher bearers patrol the streets. New cases exceed 100 daily and since the outbreak at the end of December there have been over 2,000 cases. A special meeting of the Kobe municipal council authorized special expenditure of $135,000 to defray expenses of an urgent campaign against the disease and a special corps of police, accompanied by doctors, were making house-to-house searches. A number of old women professing to cure smallpox by incantation and charms have been arrested. The death rate exceeds 3.7 of the city's population.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general devousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alterative tonic is sold under guarantee at all leading druggists.

THE TIME TO ADVERTISE

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1908.

Is when business is dult. The 14th. successful business man is he who at all times succeeds in reaching the public.

tising in the home paper. The Spencer, Hart and Nelson has reonly way to make money is to leased the pooled tobacco and keep tinghs moving and this can agreed that the farmers may sell only be done by making the public realize that you have something for sale at prices that will bring the money from the hiding place. A store which carries the same stock from one end of the week to the other, is met a profitable investment. No man or woman will allow bargains to pass unnoticed. Bargains will at all times win the cash and the only way to accomplish this is to let the public know by advertising.

The business man who fails to advertize these days is the man who complains of dull times.

LAW FOR THE RICH AND THE POOR.

In one of the cell houses of the Ohio penitentiary is a section called "Bankers' Row." There are incarcerated many men of, formerly reputation and high social standing, serving sentence for violating the banking laws or proving false to financial trusts. The presence of those men in this prison is standing denial of the assertion that in this country there is one law for the rich and another for the poor.

Indeed, it is probable that throughout the United States today men of large means and inflence suffer the penalties of misdeeds by legal process more uniformly than the poorer criminals do. It must be admitted that justice makes mistakes in America as everywhere else; and the penalties which men pay for their crimes often seem to be ill-fitting, when individual case are considered.

But there is nothing in the general rule to justify the assertion that there is one law for the rich and another for the poor. We have not yet fallen to that low estate, and it is to be hoped that we may never descend to it.-Toledo Citizen.

CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

The prejudice that has been aroused against the men who have written their names largest upon the geography of their country by railway construction, or whose genius has built up such corporate organization, as exist in steel, in oil, in the telegraph and in other lines of industry; the prejustice that swept over the West in the days of Populism, and that now seems so far to dictate the policles of both the great political parties that their old-time controversies are fergotten and they are merged in attacks upon two false assumptions; first, that the men of great affairs are lacking in industry, and, second, that the men of small affairs are over supplied with it. I shall not say that almost every instance of great success in this country is an example of a combination, in the men who have accomplished it, of scrupulous henesty, great frugality of personal expenditure during the year of struggle, and unbounded industry .- E. W. Sells, President American Association of Public Accounts.

ARMENIANS ARE IN A PANIC

The Czar Orders Five Thousand Treops to Front-Military Demonstration Rumored-Dispute Over Boundary.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 5 .- Under the cover of Hurdish tribesmen, Turkey is reported to be massing infantry at Bayazid and other strategic points near the Turko-Russian frontier in such strength as to give foundation to the growing feeling that the movement is not solely against non-militant Persia.

With the ordering of 5,000 Russian troops from Northern Caucasus to the frontier all doubt as to the intention of a military demonstration against Turkey is at rest. Russian infantry in small bodies have been pushed forward steadily for several weeks past.

panic-stricken over the presence of formidable bodies of Turkish troops of her sleepless nights. in Armenia and the region seized from Persia.

Turkish Spies Are Agitators. Russia now has only two army corps in the Caucasus, a large part of which is dispersed in detachments through the country to preserve order or engaged in punitive expeditions. An the examining magistrate Saturday, officer is quoted as saying that the Turks could, in case of trouble, sweep the Caucasus and occupy Tiflis in ten days. The Turkish emissaries and spies, it is stated, are to be found everywhere fomenting disorder, and the inhabitants are in open sympathy with their co-religionists across the border.

The authorities here, though 'admitting the seriousness of the Turko-Persia relations, do not share the alarmist views held in the Caucasus.

The governments of Turkey and Persia have been disputing about the boundary line near Tabriz for some time past, and the situation is a serious one, as the interests of Germany, Great Britain and Russia may be gravely affected by an outbreak of hostilities.

Turkish troops have occupied Persian territory and committed depredations, and there have been serious disorders at Tabriz. Russia is bound by treaty to help Persia.

CONGRESSIONAL

The following resolution of sympathy for the Poles in Prussia was of fered in the house Monday by Mr. Bates of Pennsylvania: "Resolved, by the house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that, recognizing the constant allegiance of the Polanders in America to the government of their adoption, we therefore extend our sympathy and good wishes to the Poles in Prussia in their efforts to maintain their property rights in that kingdom."

The senate passed a bill to apply the provisions of the act pensioning survivors of the Indian wars of 1832 to 1842 to survivors of the Indian wars that occurred in Utah, Colorado, Minnesota and Idaho down to and including 1867. Senator Smoot stated that 700 veterans of these wars in Utah would be affected by the bill.

Senator Culberson introduced a resplution directing the secretary of the treasury to inform the senate if any national banks outside New York complained by telegrams or letters to the treasury department, the secretary of the treasury, the treasurer of the United States or the comptroller of the currency between Oct. 1, 1907. and Nov. 15, 1907, of the refusal of national banks of New York City to pay in cash New York exchange or to respond to calls for reserves and, if so, the secretary is directed to send them copies of such telegrams and letters. The consideration of the resolution was postponed.

A bill was introduced by Senator Clapp to set apart for drainage purposes all funds arising from the sale of government lands in the states not included in the irrigation act and to authorize the secretary of the interior to loan these funds to states, counties and corporations organized under state laws for the reclamation of swamp lands. The money advanced is to be returned to the drainage fund in ten installments so that no one project will have the use of any part of the fund longer than ten years.

A bill designed to take the place of the employers' liability act recently declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States was introduced in the house Monday by Mr. Sabath of Illinois.

A rearrangement of the stars on the flag of the United States is proposed in a bill introduced Monday by Representative Ansberry of Ohio. The bill provides for the amendment of sections 1791 and 1792 of the revised statutes so that the arrangement of the stars shall be "in five arcs in combination, the centers of the arcs to be the apeces of a regular pentagon." The stars of the new states shall be so placed as to extend the arcs and shall be given position on the flags on the Fourth of July following admission.

Three of the giants of the house of representatives had their innings Monday. Technically, the Indian apbill was under discussion, but legislation was relegated to the background, while national politics occupied the stage. Before the political question cropped out, the house, with next to the largest attendance of the session present, with but one dissent ing voice, passed a general widows' pension bill, granting a flat pension of $12 a month to the widows of all honorably discharged soldiers of the United States who have not heretofore received the benefits of the pension law and an increase of $4 a pressly waives the limitation of property holdings. The bill involves the expenditure of more than $12,000.00 annually.

PRONOUNCED HIS CASE INCURABLI

Whole Body Raw with Eczema-Life was Intolerable-Was Even Incased in Plaster-Discharged from Hospitals as Hopeless.

SUFFERED 14 YEARS CURED BY CUTICURA

"From the age of three months until fifteen years old, my son Owen's life was made intolerable by eczema in its worst form. He was all right until a red rash broke out on his forband but we were a red recount on his round out on his round on his round out we were not alarmed at first. Very soon, however the rash began the spread over his he shoulders, should and shoulders, and it caused him great discomfort. I took him to a doctor and tried half a dozen other treatments, all with the same result: ho improvement at all. The disease gradually spread until nearly every part of his body was quite raw. We had to strap him down in bed, for he used to tear himself dreadfully in his sleep. The agony he went through is quite beyond words. No one thought we would rear him. The regimental doctor, a very clever man, pronounced the case hopeless; at least, he said the only hope was that he might, if he lived long enough, outgrow it to some extent. We had him in hospitals four times and he was pronounced one of the worst cases, if not the worst, ever admitted. From each he was discharged as incurable; in fact he got worse under the successive treatments. At one hospital they incased him in plaster, and this seemed to aggravate the soreness terribly. He looked so badly that no one liked to go near him and his life was a burden to him. We kept trying remedy after remedy, but we had got almost past hoping for a cure. Six months ago we purchased a set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent Pills and persevered with them. The result was truly marvelous and to-day he is perfectly cured, his skin not having a blemish on it anywhere. Dainty Undermuslin

A WHIRLWIND OF WHITEWEAR.

White Fabrics

Out they will flutter--Clouds of Dainty Undermuslins, White Eabrics, Laces and Embroideries and Staples--- and all Marked at Enticing Prices. The One Great Event of the Season.

Now comes a long anticipated event—our Annual White Sale. Ready for a period of underpricing of lingerie, staples, fabrics, in fact everything white is involved in this sale. How the bargain winds will blow in the departments where white goods are sold. How the snowy clouds of white merchandise will disappear—melting like the snow (which theo outrival in whiteness) under a July sun.

We bought widely for this even—and well. Elaborate, Frenchy Undermuslins whose prices have usually been almost prohibitive—were offered us by scared, panic stricken manufacturers at half prices. And in other lines of goods—fabrics, garments, laces, etc.—bought at even greater price concessions.

Put two and two together and the importance of this sale is evident. Beautiful undermusing and other white wear—which ordinarily, few can afford, are on sale here at prices to accommodate every purse.

While our stocks are the largest we ever assembled for a White Sale—so unusual are the values, that many of the choicest may not last that event through. For that reason—come early.

THE SALE BEGINS WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 5TH. 1908.

Aside from the hardship it will cause among the poor and the suffering of stock, the snow is welcomed.

Blinding Snow Causes Collision. Chicago, Feb. 1.-A snow storm was raging last night over the Lake Michigan and Lake Superior regions and in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Minnesota, Wisconsin, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. The snowfall was accompanied by a high northwest wind and reached its greatest severity in Northern Iowa and the Dakotas where low temperatures were registered. The wind reached a velocity co thirty miles an hour in Chicago, driv ing the heavy wet snow before with tremendous force, and seriously interfering with street traffic. In the outlying districts traversed by surface lines of street cars much difficulty was encountered in keeping the tracks open. In the height of the storm a train on the Aurora, Elgin & Chicago electric line collided with a motor gar, the accident being due to the blinding snow, which obscured the view of the North and northeast of the burned motorman. Twenty-four persons were more or less seriously injured, though none was fatally hurt. The injuries were chirefly bruises and cuts from flying-glass.

worn in southern style, parted away over on the right and combed down on the other side in long waves.

Besides being the "baby" the chances are that the new Florida senator will become known as the handsomest man in the United States senate. He says himself that he wants to become the best senator his state has ever had, and that he also intends, if possible, to be the oldest man in the senate some day. Senator Bryan practiced law with his brother in Jacksonville, and took a very active part in Democratic politics. In 1902 he was elected county attorney and during his term he closed all the gambling houses in his district, gave the people dry Sundays, prosecuted the beef and the ice trusts and became popular not by closing his eyes to infractions of the law, but by prosecuting every offender against whom he could obtain evidence.

In 1904, when Napoleon B. Broward was running for governor of Florida, Bryan managed his campaign so successfully that his man was elected by a large majority. The governor showed his appreciation of the young attorney's services by appointing him senator to succeed the late Stephen R. Mallory, the term expiring March 4, 1909.

The younge enator prior to Bryanwas Henry Cy, who entered the house at the age of 29 years, 10 months and 17 days. He is no relation to the Nebraska celebrity.

WAY OF MODERN TO

Beauty of Perugia's Famous Oratory to Be Marred by a New Building.

Rome.-Lovers of Italy's art treasares will be sorry to learn that it is intended to build a modern house in he small picturesque square leading to the celebrated Oratory of Saint Bernardino of Sienna in Perugia, and that it will hide in part the view of its beautiful facade. This oratory was built in 1450 by the magistrates of Perugia, who were anxious to leave to their native city some enduring mark of the man whose influence in a time of extreme moral depravity and constant party strife had been purely one of good to the citizens of Perugia.

into view again. "It's Charnworth," he shouted; "he's dead-he's shot himself."

"You see, Maj. Badderley," said the inspector, as they walked homeward, I knew he had not left the village. In searching his room I came across his novel in manuscript. He mentioned to his housekeeper that he had completed it yesterday morning. I found that in many respects it closely resembled the story of his own life. In the last chapter Le Strange commits suicide. No names were mentioned, but I suspected that he had picked his scenery from his own locality. There was a chance that, expecting immediate arrest, he hadwell, completed the reality by following the example of his hero. If so, had he chosen the place which he described in the book for his own tragdy? The verdict came after 25 hours of waiting, and when everyone connected with the case had abandoned all hope of an agreement ever being reached in this or any other

Protests He is Sane.

Four hours after the foreman's lips with the accompanying insanity clause, Thaw, protesting he was sane, was on his way to Matteawan. A little after nightfall he had been received in the institution under commitment papers, which directed his detention "until discharged by due course of law."

No more unwilling patient ever made a journey to a state institution. Thaw's train on its way to Fishkill Landing, where a carriage was taken to Matteawan, passed beneath the very walls of grim Sing-Sing, but at no time since his arrest on the night of June 25, 1906, had the young Pittsburg millionaire per held the thought that he would see the inside of that famous prison, and he heeded it not.

Bows His Thanks to Jurors. The first thrill of the words of se quittal brought Thaw to his feet in the courtroom, and with that lack of grace of action which always has characterized his movements, he awkwardly, almost haughtily, bowed his acknowledgements to the twelve jurymen as they were discharged by the court. A smile played about his pallid features and there was every reason to believe that he was entirely pleased with the

It was after he had heard the words of Justice Dowling, committing him to Matteawan on the ground that his release, in the opinion of the court, would endanger the public safety, and after the elation of the verdict had died away, that Thaw rebelled. He commanded his attorneys immediately to seek a writ of habeas corpus to have his sanity tested before he was sent away to the upstate institution where the insane of criminal tendencies were confined.

Mrs. William Thaw, from her hotel, vnere she had received over the telephone the news of the trial's end, joined in the demand of her son.

Martin W. Littleton, whose conduct of the case as chief counsel for the defense has won so much favorable comment, finally prevailed against the wishes of the mother, indicating that he believed it would be better for the present to obey the mandate of the Alleged Plot to Secure Insurance Money and Then Decamp.

Cincinnati, Feb. 4 .- As the result of an investigation of an alleged plot among certain insurance men and traveling merchants to start incendiary fires in stores opened for that purpose, secure the insurance and money and then decamp, two warrants were sworn out Monday by the state fire marshals for the arrest of Louis Levison and Harry Kohn on a charge of arson. It is charged that the conspiracy had been going on for about two weeks.

One of the men questioned was A. K. Murray, who committed suicide yesterday in the Commercial Tribune building here by cutting his throat with a razor. He was closely questioned as to his knowledge of certain fires of recent date, and the collection of alleged fraududent written insurance. He was never actually placed under arrest, but appeared to be greatly worried over the matter. The news of his suicide came just before the arrest of Kohn and Levison

The extent of the alleged conspiracy is as yet not fully known, but it is said that more arrests will follow.

Ruef, in open court Thursday, denounced as untrue the statement of District Attorney Langdon that he had been in communication with the other defendants in the United Railroad case, and 'ast night issued a statement in which he repeated his denial of his alleged double dealing; charged the prosecution with violating its solemn word of honor and the written pledges: accused the district attorney of trying to force him into absolute compliance with certain demands by securing his conviction and then under promise of leniency, compel him to testify; reiterated that he had kept faith and asserted that he was now and always had been willing to testify to the truth, as he had done before the grand jury.

Hughee Against Race Track Gambling. New York, Feb. 3.-Gov. Charles E. Hughes made a trenchant plea for the abolition of race track gambling in a speech delivered Sunday at the Majestic theater in Brooklyn at a mass meeting of the "citizens' anti-race track gambling campaign." The governor declared that the question of race track gambling was not a matter for the churches or for any particular sect of social reformers, but whether the construction of the state of New York shall be enforced. He said that much had been heard about improving the breed of horses, which he was in favor of, but that he was also in favor of improving the breed of men.

The production is a revelation in beautiful scenery, pretty costumes, a dainty chorus, sweet simple music, clever dancing and a wonderful display of electrical effects. This is said to be one of the finest musical comedy productions today before the public. At Temple Theater Saturday night, Feb. 8.

"Miss Bob White."

Charles H. Brown the well known and popular agent of "Miss Bob for it. White," company, who was in town last week ahead of Willard Spensers dainty, comedy opera, is a theatrical advance man of the old school, with a sharp face and curly, iron gray hair, he does not look unlike Edwin Booth or one of the great masters, and to top the genuinely "theatrical" appearance he invariably wears a silk hat of the latest style; in fact, so closely is the nobby attire identifled with Brown that he has earned the title of "Deacon" with those who know him sufficiently well. The Deacon, as we call him, tells a very funny yarn of his trip South. He was standing in the B. & O. depet in Philadelphia waiting for a belated train when he was attracted by the actions of a Salvation Army lass, or female Gospelite. He listened with much interest to the young woman's remarkable flow of intelligence and at the fall of the hat, or rather the pass of the coin collector, he took some change from his pocket and was about to deposit a dime when the middle-of-the-road disciple looked at him in astonishment and said: 'Are you a gambler or a preacher? If the first I do not want your money." Brown was knocked out for a mement and then said: "Well, young woman, you have missed your guess; I'm au actor" She took the dime. Brown averrs that she likewise took the cake.

Home Talent Play.

Notwithstanding Tuesday night was one of the most inclement of the season a good sized audience greeted the home talent play, "A Woman's Honor," at Temple Theatre. While the play was rather difficult for ameof Central Pennsylvania, as to just tures to attempt, it was very well staged and kindly received by the charitable ones. Knockers are to be found in any size audience, who take pleasure in knocking, and this one was no exception.

The characters were well costumed and while all deserve credit several were well suited to their parts and did exceptionally good acting. Among those were Ebeneezer, Gregory Grimes have a hard time being argued out and Sally who took the humorous of the belief that he was fresh from parts that always pleases an audience. The other churacters were serious and true to some natures. Olive Glenn and Dr. Gilbert Hall, the leading characters, played their parts well ances of the Lyman Twin Brothers as did Gen. Mark Lester. Pedrothe famous twin comedians and a and Mariah were among the best. large company in their new elabor- Robert Glenn and Dr. Garcia well suited their parts.

Mrs. Robert Fenwick, Jr., furnishes the music on the piane clever young comedians have yet between acts and for the song

> Alonicoius Morgan did some good char-coal drawing showing a decidedly fine talent for work of this character.

A rare treat is in store for Earlington lovers of amusement and good music. A choice male quartette is always popular and the Otterbein Male Quartette and Bell Ringers is an exceptionally good entertainment of this class. The Otterbreins will appear at Temple Theatre the night of Tuesday Feb. 25th. Wait
